CONNECT WITH BLOOMFIELD

In Bloom is a Quarterly Newsletter produced by the Town of Bloomfield, Office of Strategic Communications and Government Affairs. Any questions or concerns should be directed to the Town at 860-769-3599.

The quarterly newsletter was written and designed by Brian Wolff, Community Engagement & Public Relations Coordinator, and edited by India Rodgers, Director of Strategic Communications & Government Affairs and Romano Tucker, Communications Specialist. Additional editorial assistance provided by Lynn Weisel, Recording Secretary.

A MESSAGE TO THE BLOOMFIELD COMMUNITY

FROM THE TOWN MANAGER

As we welcome the arrival of spring, it brings with it a sense of renewal, growth, and fresh possibilities. This season serves as a reminder to refocus our energy, embrace new opportunities, and strengthen our commitment to the community we serve. Spring is a time for revitalization—not just in nature but in our daily work and personal goals. It's an opportunity to refresh our perspectives, reinvigorate our dedication to excellence, and continue making meaningful progress for Bloomfield. Whether it's advancing key initiatives, enhancing services, or fostering stronger connections within the community, let's take this time to renew our focus and move forward with optimism and purpose.

This spring, we are excited to celebrate the rich diversity, unity, and progress of Bloomfield through a series of impactful community events. We look forward to the highly anticipated grand opening of Filley Park, a project that reflects our commitment to enhancing public spaces for all residents. In honor of Earth Month, we encourage everyone to participate in our annual Community Clean-Up Day, demonstrating our shared responsibility for environmental stewardship. As we approach Memorial Day, we will take time to remember and honor those who have served our country with dedication and sacrifice. Additionally, we will continue celebrating inclusion and equality with Bloomfield's Pride Day festivities, as well as the town's Juneteenth celebrations, recognizing the importance of freedom, resilience, and cultural heritage in our community.

These events are just a few of the ways we continue to strengthen our town's spirit, bringing together residents, businesses, and organizations in the name of progress and unity. As we move forward this season, I encourage each of you to stay engaged, take pride your community, and embrace the opportunities that lie ahead. Thank you for your dedication and for making Bloomfield a vibrant and welcoming place for all. Wishing you a productive and fulfilling spring!

Warm regards,

Alvin D. Schwapp, Jr.
Town Manager

SPRING INTO ACTION: GROWTH, RENEWAL, AND COMMUNITY PROGRESS

Spring has arrived, bringing warmer weather, longer days, and a renewed sense of energy in our community. As flowers bloom and trees bud, it's the perfect time to enjoy the many events and initiatives that make Bloomfield such a special place to live, work, and play.

One of the most exciting events this season is the Grand Reopening of Filley Park. This beautiful space has been thoughtfully revitalized to provide a welcoming destination for relaxation, recreation, and community gatherings. I encourage everyone to visit and experience all that the park has to offer. Look out for this year's Rockwell Park groundbreaking too!

We are thrilled to announce that the Arbor Day Foundation has named Bloomfield a 2024 Tree City USA in honor of its commitment to plant, grow, and maintain trees to benefit its community. Spring also brings opportunities for us to come together and make a difference. Community Clean-Up Day is a time for residents to take pride in our town by helping to keep our neighborhoods, parks, and public spaces clean and beautiful. Similarly, our Arbor Day festivities will highlight the importance of sustainability and environmental stewardship, reinforcing our commitment to a greener Bloomfield.

As we embrace the change in seasons, we also turn our attention to the future. The FY2026 Budget is currently a key focus for the Town Council. With mindful consideration for our resident's ability to pay and balancing the impact on the quality of services being delivered today, we are seeking the most conservative budget outcomes in light of the state mandated property revaluation. We understand the importance of keeping taxes manageable while continuing to provide the high level of services that residents expect and deserve. These decisions are not always easy, but we remain committed to thoughtful planning and strategic investments that benefit all of Bloomfield.

Economic development remains a top priority, and work continues on the Town Center Economic Development Plan. This initiative is shaping the future of our Town Center, creating opportunities for businesses to thrive and enhancing the vibrancy of our community. Additionally, the Town Council is working to establish an Economic Development Trust Fund, which will serve as an important tool to support new and existing businesses while strengthening our local economy. It's time to invest in ourselves.

As always, I encourage you to stay engaged, participate in upcoming events, and share your thoughts on how we can continue to make Bloomfield the best it can be. Thank you for your ongoing commitment to our town—I look forward to seeing many of you at our spring celebrations!

Warm Regards,

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS

CONNECTICUT
YEAR
New England Chapter
APWA
AMERICAN PUBLIC WORKS ASSOCIATION

The New England Chapter of the American Public Works Association has announced that the Town of Bloomfield Department of Public Works has been named the Connecticut Public Works Department of the Year. The award was formally presented at the New England Chapter's spring conference on April 7.

The honor comes on the heels of the department earning its third accreditation from the American Public Works Association, a distinction that demonstrates Bloomfield's commitment to best practices, efficiency, and innovation in public works operations.

"This award is a testament to the hardworking men and women of our Public Works Department who go above and beyond every day to serve our community," said Town Manager Alvin D. Schwapp, Jr. "Their dedication and professionalism make a real difference in the lives of Bloomfield residents, and I am incredibly proud to see them receive this well-earned recognition."

Bloomfield's Public Works Department plays a critical role in the community, ensuring the town's roads, parks, and facilities remain safe, clean, and accessible. From managing winter storm responses to maintaining public spaces, their work impacts every resident, every day.

Mayor Danielle C. Wong praised the department's contributions, stating, "Public Works is the backbone of our community. From plowing our streets in the winter to keeping our parks beautiful in the summer, their work keeps Bloomfield running smoothly. This award reaffirms what we already know—our Public Works team is truly the best of the best."

Public Works Director Dan Carter expressed gratitude for the recognition, attributing the department's success to the dedication of his team. "It's an honor to receive this award on behalf of our hardworking crew. We take great pride in serving the residents of Bloomfield, and this recognition only strengthens our commitment to maintaining and improving the town's infrastructure for years to come."

BLOOMFIELD PUBLIC LIBRARIES

*Current and previous employees of the Bloomfield Public Library attend the McMahon Wintonbury reopening on March 17, 2025.

Bloomfield Public Library's newly renovated McMahon Wintonbury location opened its doors to the public March 17, 2025. Located at 1015 Blue Hills Avenue, this bright and welcoming space has many new features including a dedicated teen space with super cool computers for gaming, privacy pods for study, tutoring, or (small, 1-2 person) meetings, a state-of-the-art programming space complete with a large 85" screen, and comfortable chairs for reading newspapers and magazines, or just for socializing. Over 1,000 people visited the library during its first week open, so please visit and become part of the community experience.

The anticipated improvements to the exterior include 24/7 access lockers for patrons to pick up library materials, a children's garden, canopies at the front and back entrances, and landscaping/paving projects for beautification and safety.

MAYOR DANIELLE C. WONG ANNOUNCES 2024 TREE CITY USA RECOGNITION FOR BLOOMFIELD

Town of Bloomfield Mayor Danielle C. Wong is proud to announce that the Arbor Day Foundation has named Bloomfield a 2024 Tree City USA in honor of its commitment to plant, grow, and maintain trees to benefit its community.

The Arbor Day Foundation is a global nonprofit with a mission to inspire people to plant, nurture and celebrate trees. Its network of more than a million supporters and partners has helped the organization plant more than 500 million trees in forests and communities across more than 60 countries since 1972. The Tree City USA program has recognized cities and towns that leverage urban forestry to enhance the livability and sustainability of their local area for over 50 years.

"I am thrilled that Bloomfield has been recognized as a 2024 Tree City USA by the Arbor Day Foundation," said Mayor Wong. "This honor reflects our community's dedication to fostering a greener, healthier environment for all residents. Trees play a vital role in enhancing our urban landscape, improving air quality, and promoting overall well-being. We are committed to continuing our efforts in planting, growing, and maintaining trees to ensure a sustainable future for Bloomfield. Together, we can make a lasting impact and inspire others to join us in celebrating and nurturing our natural resources."

In towns and neighborhoods, trees are proven to help mitigate the urban heat island effect, reduce stormwater runoff, improve air quality, and boost mental and physical health. When the right trees are planted in the right places, they can also reduce traffic noise, increase property values, and lower energy costs for homeowners.

"We all have a role to play in shaping our future and tree champions like Bloomfield are leading the way," said Michelle Saulnier, Vice President of Programs at the Arbor Day Foundation. "Trees are critical infrastructure, building resiliency and fostering good health in our nation's cities. We're proud Bloomfield is among the Arbor Day Foundation's growing network of communities dedicated to creating positive impact through trees."

To earn Tree City USA recognition, a city or town must uphold four core standards including maintaining a tree board or department, having a community tree ordinance, spending at least $2 per capita on urban forestry, and participating in an Arbor Day celebration.

The Arbor Day Foundation's Tree City USA program is operated in partnership with the National Association of State Foresters and the USDA Forest Service. To learn more about the program or how to apply, visit arborday.org.

BE A PART OF HISTORY: FILLEY PARK TIME CAPSULE TO BE PART OF GRAND OPENING CELEBRATION

We are looking forward to the Grand Reopening of Filley Park, which will be held on Saturday, May 3 at 11:00 am. As part of the Grand Opening the citizens of Bloomfield, both past and present are invited to send in their memories of Bloomfield to be installed in a time capsule telling future residents what Bloomfield was like in the 50's, 60's, 70's and beyond.

Time capsules serve as powerful bridges between the past, present, and future, preserving artifacts, messages, and memories for future generations. They provide a unique snapshot of a community's culture, values, and aspirations at a specific moment in time. By carefully selecting and sealing away items that reflect daily life, historic milestones, and local achievements, time capsules create an opportunity for future residents to connect with their town's heritage in a deeply personal way. They inspire curiosity, encourage historical reflection, and remind us that progress is built upon the experiences of those who came before us.

The Filley Park Time Capsule will serve as a lasting legacy for Bloomfield, capturing not only the town's present makeup, but also honoring its past. By including historical artifacts, photographs, and stories from previous generations, the time capsule will highlight the rich heritage that has shaped Bloomfield into the community it is today. This blend of past and present will provide future Bloomfield residents with a deeper understanding of their roots, showing them how the town has evolved while preserving the memories of those who laid the foundation for its growth. When the capsule is eventually unearthed, it will offer a meaningful glimpse into the town's journey—its traditions, progress, and shared hopes—ensuring that the spirit of Bloomfield continues to inspire generations to come.

OLD FARM SCHOOL

The Old Farm School at 151 School Street is the oldest public building in town. It was built in 1796 and used continuously as a school until 1922. During this entire time period it did not have running water or electricity. The upper story was opened as additional classroom space in 1829 and some of the original desks remain.
